

Cemetery Search!

Who used to live in your town? How many children did each family have? What kind of art did people use to express their feelings about life? These are just some of the questions you can answer in a cemetery. One of each of the things listed below, but keep your eyes open for anything else that interests you. You never know what you'll find! Write the name on the stone in the boxes below.

A first name (or names) you have never heard before

A flower or pinwheel on a gravestone

Someone who was born more than 200 years ago (when did they live?)

Someone who fought in a war

A skull with wings

Here's a space to draw a design you like from one of the stones

Someone whose last name is Lyman, Parsons, or Pomeroy

A person with wings

Three different colors of lichen

Extra Challenge: Find a crown or a skull with two mouths
