

Put Your Stamp on it!

When you and your family get butter, it probably comes in a rectangular block wrapped in paper. However, farmers used to decorate their butter with patterns stamped into it so that people who liked their butter would always be able to recognize it. Plus, it made their butter prettier. Here is one pattern. Color it in, then try to design your own!